

Join the Guild Page

Welcome to the Guild

You've taken the first step in getting...

- An online, all-the-time comprehensive resource for llama & alpaca handling
- Personal advice from Camelidynamics founder Marty McGee Bennett
- The innovative & effective approach to handling & training your animals with respect
- Membership in an exclusive group of alpaca & llama owners (who get it)
- Discounts, specials & advanced notice
- Camelidynamics Handler certification & Practitioner Program

The Camelidynamics Guild is open to anyone interested in becoming a part of this camelid community dedicated to training and handling with respect and results. For the Associate Membership, there is absolutely no experience or educational requirements required.

Steps to Joining the Guild

Click here for a printable version of these instructions.

1. Log on & Register...

- Click here to go to the registration page.
- Complete the online registration form and select the COMPLETE REGISTRATION button.
- At this time you will provide your Guild Username & Password. (Write these down because you'll need them each time you log on to the Guild.)

2. Email Verification

You will then receive a email verification in your inbox within 5 minutes after registering. You must follow the link contained in this email and use the activation code provided. This is a security measure to ensure your email is correct.

3. Payment (Paypal or Check)

- If you would like to pay using Paypal, select Subscription Page to complete the payment process.
- If you prefer to pay by check, close this window, then mail a check (payable to Camelidynamics) to:
Camelidynamics
18380 Pinehurst Road
Bend, OR 97701

4. Welcome

Within 48 hours after your payment (check or Paypal) is received, you will receive a welcome email indicating your membership is activated. You can begin posting, have access the Guild Library, and will be added to the private Guild mailing list for special announcements and the Guild eNews.

QUESTIONS? NEED HELP?

email staffmember@camelidynamics.com